Acting Mayor Jackie Schlaak called the meeting to order at 6:30 pm.

Motion to approve the agenda, minutes from the council meeting on September 11th, and the accounts payable was made by Kyle, seconded by Matt; motion carried.

Public Input:

- Jeff Strom and Maureen Williams-Zelenak from Crime Victim Crisis Center presented their campaign to Paint the Town Purple for October for domestic violence awareness month. Purple lights and signs are available in the Post Office for people to take and display for the month.
- The owner of 520 Main was present and agreed to get his property taken care of by the end of November, including but not limited to: garbage in yard, junk truck, and siding.

Fire Dept.:

- No billable calls

City Maintenance:

- The new water plant needs lights as all have burnt out.
- A new gazebo made of wood and vinyl with dimensions of 14 x 14 will be about $18k to construct. Allyson will present this gazebo to the insurance adjuster to see if it can be purchased now and built at a later date.

City Clerk Updates:

- NA

Council Concerns:

- The remaining junk properties will have notices posted on their doors to address their issues within 10 days or they will be fined $100/day until all issues are resolved.

Mayor Concerns:

Miscellaneous:

- Next meeting is Monday, November 6th at 6:30 pm.
- Kyle motioned to adjourn the meeting at 7:05 pm, Matt seconded; motion carried.

Brooke Olson, Hartland City Clerk
